Program: ● January 18th at 7:30 pm, Rudi Swanson will present a program on the Kalmar Nykel in the auditorium. ● At next month's CALRA meeting the Cadbury Dietician will talk about small workshops she will be putting together for five or fewer people to address specific diet issues. There will be a nominal charge for these events. ● The February long program will be presented by Sally Boswell, Education and Outreach Coordinator for the Center of Inland Bays. The topic will be creating Schoolyard Habitats with students and volunteering opportunities.

Woodworking: Items made can be seen in the hallway outside the shop, including two spectacular birdhouses.

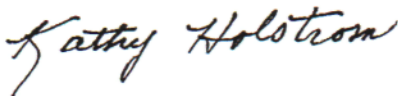

Dial-A-Ride: Procedures for this volunteer program were clarified. Two rides were found and one pick-up was made this month.

NEW BUSINESS: ● No trash pick-up will be made today. Trash will be picked up tomorrow. ● Vic Amey has formed a committee regarding evening bus transportation from the cottages to dinner and evening events to avoid leaving the front desk unattended after 8 pm.

MEMBER CONCERNS: ● Ruth Folta reported on a humorous musical play, "Grasshopper," to be presented February 15th at 3:30 pm in the Bistro. ● Barbara Cleaveland was thanked for her two years served as our President. ● It was suggested that the snow plows not leave tall piles which restrict drivers' vision. ● Joe DeMul will speak to Chuck Redulic regarding the preparations promised for emergencies. ● Elaine Glisson stated that the east parking lot needs to have something done to prevent dangerous speeding in and out of the area.

ADJOURNMENT: Kathy Holstrom moved: "that the meeting be adjourned at 11:00 am." The motion was seconded and passed unanimously.

Respectfully submitted,
