

CADBURY AT LEWES RESIDENTS' ASSOCIATION GENERAL MEETING

May 18, 2009

10:00 a.m.

The meeting was called to order at 10:00 a.m. by President Barbara Cleaveland who requested that we remember Walter Schneider as she led us in a Moment of Silence. Before beginning the program, President Barbara stated that Chuck Rendulic, Director of Support Services, had accepted our invitation to come and talk to us and answer questions regarding Housekeeping. When he arrives we will stop whatever we are doing and introduce him.

Sharon Hoover introduced Jeane Wampler, one of our fellow residents, who gave us a delightful demonstration in arranging fresh flowers.

BUSINESS

Minutes: The minutes of the General Meeting of April 20, 2009, were accepted as posted.

Corresponding Secretary: Adele Hudson is out of town, President Barbara reported that Adele had sent two get well cards and one sympathy card.

Treasurer: Diantha Pack, also out of town, submitted her report to our president. Balance as of May 3, 2009 was $3,868.30. President Barbara noted that at the Board meeting the decision was made, at the request of the treasurer, to close the savings account transferring those funds into the checking account.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Activities: Don Burgess submitted his report and explained transportation charges for trips. On long trips - chg. will be $10.00; Dover/Salisbury type - $5.00; local trips - 0 chg. Charges will be noted on the sign-in sheets. Please cross off your name if you find you will not be going on a trip for which you had signed up.

BINGO will start in June. Grace Rork will be the caller. There will be a $.50 chg per card.

Housekeeping Ad Hoc Committee: Jim Bazzoli, chairman, explained the background of this committee, named the members and how they had met with Chuck for a good back and forth discussion of our concerns and Cadbury's concerns. Jim then introduced Chuck Rendulic who talked with us for approximately 30 minutes regarding issues and concerns about housekeeping services, answering many questions. He promised to have copies of lists of regular cleaning duties, all extra services available and fee schedule, semi-annual cleaning duties made for each of us and placed in our boxes.

Dining Services: Ted Barnett thanked those who responded to their latest survey and promised that they won't send any more! He expressed thanks to Ingrid and her staff for the great job they did for Mothers' Day. He also noted that one can get lighter fare in the dining room - - soup and salad.

Gift Shop: Gladys Ratz reported that the net income for April was $225.50; the net profit for the year is $644.35.

Landscaping and Library: no reports

Membership: Dick Cleaveland reported that we have 150 residents - down three since the last report - - the Birelys moved out, and we lost Walter Schneider. 88% of the residents have donated dues to this organization!.

Newsletter: Many thanks to those who wrote articles for the newsletter -

Program: Sharon Hoover first reminded everyone to go to Tuesday evening's program to hear about Henrietta the Pig as told by Don Burgess! Next month's program for our General Meeting will be about genealogy - - several Cadbury residents will share how they have researched their families.

Woodworking: No report

Dial-A-Ride: Elaine Glisson reported that two people were taken to doctors' appointments, prescriptions picked up, and one person to Beebe hospital at 5:30 a.m. for surgery appointment. Please let Elaine know about those residents who get up very early!

Wing and Cottage Reps: No report.

OLD BUSINESS

President Barbara reported that Vic has notified her that we have passed the probation period and the alcohol policy is now permanent! Request to post names of those residents in either the Health Center or hospital has been approved. Names will be posted on the bulletin board. Also, if you have problems, be sure to put in PMIs to Vic.

There being no New Business, meeting adjourned at 11:25 a.m.

Pat O'Hanlon, Secretary
